10 YEARS and Counting!

*It's The JCC in Manhattan's 10th Anniversary on 76th and Amsterdam!
The JCC is proud to be a home to families and individuals of all walks of life—fostering an inclusive, engaged community rooted in Jewish values.*

Come celebrate with us!

10 YEARS
building community

PERFORMING ARTS

THE INTERNATIONALE

Detroit-born, Berlin-based singer-songwriter Daniel Kahn and legendary Moscow avant-garde song bard Psoy Korolenko perform original songs and translations that draw on obscure Russian folk tunes, Hasidic niggunim and Yiddish workers' marches. In a cabaret setting with an abundance of tea and vodka. In English, Russian, and Yiddish.

Sponsored, in part, by Genesis Philanthropy Group.

Thu, Jan 12, 8 pm, $15/$20

ARTISTS CELEBRATE DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Each year the JCC presents the powerful work of artists whose visions elevate King's voice for justice, peace, and civil rights. Don't miss our annual event, featuring a lineup of visionary performers. Held at Peter Norton Symphony Space, 2537 Broadway at 95th Street. No advance registration; seating is limited. Doors open at 6 pm.

Mon, Jan 16, 6:30 pm, Free

RecordSetter LIVE!

Variety Show

Hosted by RecordSetter co-founders Dan Rollman and Corey Henderson (as seen on Late Night with Jimmy Fallon), this spectacular variety show will feature over 10 world record attempts live onstage—including one by the entire audience. Come discover what New York Magazine calls "New York's Best Oddball Night."

Thu, Jan 26, 8 pm, $15/$20

PREformances

WITH ALLISON CHARNEY

An Insider's First Encounter with Great Music

Hear outstanding classical musicians as they prepare for upcoming performances around the world, in venues from Carnegie Hall to La Scala to Lincoln Center. Their first stop, however, will be the JCC on the second Tuesday of every month, where the barrier is broken between performer and audience in these welcoming and approachable concerts. Each event includes an array of singers, instrumentalists, and repertoire.

Visit jccmanhattan.org/performances for program details two weeks before each concert.

3 Tuesdays, Feb 14, Mar 13, Apr 10, 12:30 pm, $10/$15/$5 for adults 62+, per performance

LILY HENLEY

Deeply influenced by traditional American and Celtic music, as well as extensive time in Tel Aviv, this powerful singer, songwriter, and fiddler now lives in NYC where she creates new arrangements of Hebrew and Ladino songs—as well as original songs in English. Truly one of the most passionate voices on the acoustic music scene today.

Wed, Feb 8, 8 pm, $15/$20

THE BIG BUPKIS!

A COMPLETE GENTILE'S GUIDE TO YIDDISH VAUDEVILLE

Written and Performed by Shane Baker

An evening of cheap jokes, magic, ukulele music, hypnotism, ventriloquism, transvestism, unpleasant stories about Sophie Tucker, and a Yiddish bullfight poem. Giving nothing away, the show ends with Mr. Baker attempting to behead a volunteer from the audience. In English and Yiddish (mostly English) with English supertitles.

Sat, Feb 18, 8 pm
Sun Feb 19, 3 pm
$15/$20 per performance

GIRLS IN TROUBLE

Brooklyn poet and multi-instrumentalist Alicia Jo Rabin's "hauntingly lovely melodies" explore dark stories of biblical women and the hidden places where their complicated lives overlap with her own. In this one-time-only event, the JCC curates a live performance of real bat mitzvah speeches performed in musical conversation with Girls in Trouble's songs. Followed by a gallery wine reception. Presented in conjunction with The Laurie M. Tisch Gallery exhibit, The Bat Mitzvah Comes of Age.

Thu, Mar 15, 8 pm, $15/$20

DANIEL BERNARD ROUMAIN (DBR)

An innovative composer, performer, violinist, and band leader, Haitian-American artist Daniel Bernard Roumain (known as DBR) melds his classical music roots with his own cultural references and vibrant musical imagination. During his residency at the JCC, DBR will create a musical version of the Haggadah.

COMING UP IN MAY!

LIZ SWADOS

JEWISH BOOKS COOKING!

The JCC and Covenant Foundation have co-commissioned visionary Obie Award winning theater artist Liz Swados to create Jewish Books Cooking!—a carnival vaudeville which celebrates the adventure of reading and the acrobatics of the imagination. Bring the whole family to see beloved Jewish children's books brought to life on the stage.

Additional support is provided by the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs.

Unless otherwise noted, all programs are held at the JCC.

The first price listed is for JCC members; the second price is for nonmembers.

thankyouthankyouthankyou

The Goldman-Sonnenfeldt Family Auditorium is home to the JCC's Arts + Culture programs.

Funding for the Artists-in-Residence program is made possible by a generous grant from the Leon Lowenstein Foundation.

Open Rehearsal

Be a part of DBR's creative process! Come to this multi-media re-interpretation of an open rehearsal, with DBR on piano, violin, laptop, and a Skype hook-up to the University of Maryland concert band's rehearsal of DBR's musical haggadah, A Night of Questions.

Thu, Feb 2, 8 pm, Free

New Composers Workshop for All Ages

No experience needed. (In fact, the less experience the better.) In the first hour of this session, DBR will teach you how to turn numbers, words, and symbols into notational devices to score your own composition. In the second hour, all participants, along with DBR, will perform the new works.

Sat, Feb 4, 3 pm, Free

Open Conversation with DBR and Rabbi Joy Levitt

Please join Rabbi Joy Levitt as she interviews DBR about his year in residence at the JCC. Hear piano and voice excerpts from his new work, A Night of Questions: A Musical Haggadah.

Sun, Mar 25, 3 pm, Free

A NIGHT OF QUESTIONS: A MUSICAL HAGGADAH

A musical setting of Rabbis Joy Levitt and Michael Strassfeld's haggadah, scored for 31-piece concert band, violin, singer, boom box, iPhone, toy piano, coffee pot, and rabbi. Don't miss the thrilling culmination of DBR's year-long residency at the JCC.

A Journey of Spirit—In Memory of Debbie Freedman

Directed by Ann Coppel (USA, 60 min, 2005)

This documentary explores Debbie Friedman's tremendous power to promote spirituality, healing, and community through music. One of the preeminent women in contemporary Jewish culture, Debbie, who passed away last year, inspired a generation by integrating contemporary melody with Jewish liturgy. She transformed Jewish music and made sacred texts accessible to a large, diverse audience.

Tue, Jan 10, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

The Rescuers

Directed by Michael King (USA, 99 min, 2011)

Emmy Award winning filmmaker Michael King interviews survivors and descendants of diplomats who rescued Jews from Nazi death camps. The film, which King made with Stephanie Nyombayire—a young Rwandan anti-genocide activist—and Sir Martin Gilbert, renowned Holocaust historian, uses archival footage and dramatic recreations. The Rescuers is both an extraordinary study of the human capacity to commit horrific deeds and a contemplation of goodness, morality, and courage.

Tue, Jan 17, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

Iranium

Directed by Alex Traiman (USA, 60 min, 2011)

Iran's nuclear program presents a threat to international stability, yet successive American administrations have misread the intentions of the Iranian regime. How dangerous is a nuclear Iran? What are the guiding principles of the Iranian leadership, and to what lengths would it go to carry out its agenda? And why have American leaders failed to gain the upper hand with Iran for the past 30 years? Narrated by Shohreh Aghdashloo.

Tue, Jan 24, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

Home Front

Just Vision presents Portraits from Sheikh Jerrah. Home Front is a new series of video portraits chronicling the resolve of a neighborhood and the support it receives from the most unexpected of places. Join us for a special presentation and conversation.

Tue, Jan 31, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

4TH ANNUAL REELABILITIES: NY DISABILITIES FILM FESTIVAL

FEBRUARY 9-14

ReelAbilities is dedicated to promoting awareness and appreciation of the lives, stories, and artistic expressions of people with different abilities. Award-winning films will be presented in various locations throughout the NY metropolitan area. Discussions and other engaging programs bring together the community to explore, discuss, and celebrate the diversity of our shared human experience.

ReelAbilities is made possible by support from the J.E. and Z.B. Butler Foundation, the Saul Schottenstein Foundation, RY Eye, the Harry S. Black and Allon Fuller Fund, the Rita J. and Stanley H. Kaplan Fund of UJA Federation, and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs.

 Additional support is provided by an award from the National Art Works Endowment for the Arts.

Mabul

Directed by Guy Nattiv (Israel, 100 min, 2010)

Everything is complicated in Yoni's life. He's almost 13 and really smart but he's physically underdeveloped, bullied, and has parents who barely speak to each other. Right before Yoni's bar mitzvah, his autistic brother returns from the institution he's been in for ten years. This shakes up the already unstable family and Yoni finds himself dealing with a brother he hasn't seen in years. Mabul is a story about growing—both as an individual and as a family.

Tue, Mar 13, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

THE 22ND NY SEPHARDIC JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

MARCH 20, 2011

Presented by the American Sephardi Federation/Sephardic House and Yeshiva University Museum. Full program details and ticket prices available at www.americansephardifederation.org.

Exit Through the Gift Shop

Directed by Banksy (USA, 87 min, 2010)

This inside look at street art follows an eccentric shopkeeper turned amateur filmmaker who attempts to capture many of the world's most infamous vandals on film, only to have British stencil-artist Banksy turn the camera back on him—with wildly unexpected results. One of the most provocative films about art ever made.

Tue, Feb 21, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

Remembrance (Die Verlorene Zeit)

Directed by Anna Justice (Germany, 105 min, 2011)

Remembrance tells a remarkable love story set amidst the terror of a concentration camp. Passion fuels the courage of a Polish prisoner to rescue his Jewish girlfriend, and, against all odds, they escape the camp and survive a treacherous journey to freedom. But during the chaos of the end of the war, they are forcibly separated and each lover becomes convinced that the other has died. More than thirty years later, the woman, now 52 and happily married, finds out that her former Polish lover is still alive—and she has to see him again.

Thu, Feb 28, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

Off-White Lies

(Orhim Le-Rega)

Directed by Maya Kenig (Israel, 86 min, 2011)

After years of living apart from her quirky dad, Libby, an introverted yet sharp-witted teenager, is sent to live with him in Israel at the outbreak of the second Lebanon war. Her father, Shaul, comes up with a creative plan to put a roof over their heads—they pose as refugees from the bombarded northern region of Israel and are taken in by a well-off family in Jerusalem. Finally in a "normal" household, Shaul and Libby begin to build their father-daughter relationship while trying to maintain their false identities.

Tue, Apr 3, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

SAVIORS ON THE SCREEN:

A Film Series in Commemoration of Yom HaShoah

APR 25-26

Join us for our annual series of top films about the experiences of Jews during the Shoah.

ISRAEL IN SHORT

Israel is a small country with many faces and a thriving film industry. Join us for the sixth annual view of Israel through the lenses of internationally acclaimed short films.

Tue, Apr 26, 7:30 pm, $9/$11

THE LAURIE M. TISCH GALLERY

Located in the soaring lobby of the JCC, The Laurie M. Tisch Gallery exhibits interdisciplinary shows and offers interactive programs that strengthen, engage, and grow our community.

COMMUNITY PORTRAIT:
A Gabriel Specter Mural of The JCC in Manhattan

On View Jan 9-Mar 1

Gabriel Specter is an internationally known street artist, recognized for his precise installations that bring attention to marginalized people and overlooked subjects. Different from many of his counterparts in the street art scene, Specter creates one-of-a-kind, hand-drawn and sculpted pieces. His work can be seen in the city streets of New York, London, Paris, and St. Petersburg.

Our JCC community will create the background to a dynamic portrait installation, and while the results can't be described yet, we have a feeling it'll be a mural unlike any you've seen before!

OPENING!

Inspiration on the Streets with Wooster Collective

Marc and Sara Schiller of Wooster Collective have been documenting and discussing street art for the past decade as the movement grew from the streets to the galleries. Join us for an overview of the street art movement that will explain the motivation of the artists and why street art is so addictive. Marc and Sara will be joined by Gabriel Specter for a wine reception in the gallery following the program.

Wed, Jan 18, 7:30 pm, Free
Registration required

Bat Mitzvah Comes of Age

On View Mar 6–Apr 27

Presented by Moving Traditions and the National Museum of American Jewish History, this traveling exhibition being launched nationally at The JCC in Manhattan, shows how bat mitzvah evolved from a radical innovation into a nearly universal American tradition. A fascinating story of how individuals shape and change ritual, Bat Mitzvah Comes of Age offers a unique lens into the dynamism of Jewish life.

Opening Reception

Join us for the opening of this dynamic show and help us celebrate the 90th anniversary of the first bat mitzvah! Registration requested.
